to join with The Guidance Center
as we honor our*

2023 Mental Health DISTINGUISHED COMMUNITY LEADER

Lawrence A. Pepper, Jr.

Larry Pepper is receiving the prestigious 2023 Mental Health Distinguished Community Leadership Award for his outstanding contributions to and service in the greater Cumberland County, New Jersey, area. He will be recognized and thanked for his dedicated work supporting healthcare, mental health, business, transportation, education, and addiction treatment, among many others, in our local and regional communities – making them a better place to live for all of our residents through his leadership, volunteerism, and advocacy.

A lifelong resident of Vineland, NJ, Larry is an officer of the law firm of Gruccio, Pepper, DeSanto and Ruth, P.A.

The Guidance Center is proud to be honoring Larry Pepper for his work, both personal and professional, that benefits the well-being of individuals and businesses in our area.

In particular, we honor Larry's more than 50 years of service to The Guidance Center as a trustee. His dedication to supporting mental health is undeniable, along with his advocacy for numerous civic organizations that are the fiber of our southern New Jersey communities. Larry Pepper is truly a man of integrity and principle with genuine concern and compassion for others.

Providing person-centered, recovery-focused mental health services to residents in a highly qualified, professional and compassionate environment.

HONORING THOSE WHO SERVE OUR COMMUNITY WITH INTEGRITY AND SELFLESSNESS

*Join us as we recognize our 2023 Distinguished Community Leader and those who make a vital impact on the lives of individuals and families with mental health needs
in our community.*

For more than 60 years, The Guidance Center has provided professional, compassionate mental health services for the residents of Southern New Jersey. Many individuals have contributed their time and expertise to assist this quality human service organization in serving the community.

On this special evening, we honor an individual who has contributed immensely to the improvement of mental health and well-being in our community. In addition we take the opportunity to recognize some of the employees of The Guidance Center who make a difference in the lives of people each and every day.
